

Safe in the Harbor

Amy Clarkson

C F maj7 C gently, with a lilt

4 F maj7 C F maj7 C
1. Lit-tle sai lor come and rock with me a while on moon-lit tide, _____

8 F maj7 C F maj7
_____ a gen-tle ride. Lis-ten to the lap-ping waves keep-ing time for one more

11 C F maj7 em dm7
lul la by. _____ There'll be a-no-ther day to sail a-way to dis-tant lands where

15 C C/B am dm G
wi ld crea tures hi de. _____ But for to - night _____ time to be safe in the har-bor with

19 C G am E7 am
me. How can it be that an o cean full of love fits right here in my heart?

24 G am E7
And though it seems you've been a part of me all a-long, I know we're right here at the start. And so to - night _____ time to be safe in the har-bor with me.

27 am dm G C F maj7

Safe in the Harbor

32 C F maj7 C

Vs. 2:

Little sailor, come and rock with me awhile on moon-lit tide,
A gentle ride.

Listen to the lapping waves keeping time for one more lullaby.

There'll be other times for catching pirates in their crimes or digging buried treasure from the sea.

But for tonight, time to be safe in the harbor with me.

© 2015 Amy Clarkson

May be used for personal, therapeutic, or educational purposes.
If interested in use for public performance, please contact Amy at amyclarkson103@gmail.com.